

Illinois Science Teachers Association

Our mission: to promote excellence in science education in Illinois

2009: Illinois Year of Science Event Worksheet

(<http://www.ista-il.org>)

ISTA welcomes the opportunity to broker opportunities for our members and colleagues to learn the latest science and to teach science even more effectively in our classrooms. Please complete our worksheet so that we can publicize your planned events through ISTA communications channels for our membership. The ISTA 2009 Web Calendar will be the first-line mechanism to provide the simplest location and timing information and link directly to the following information page and then your own web site/registration contact details for your events. ISTA accepts no responsibility for meeting registration, cancellation, or financial arrangements related to this event.

Event Host: _____

Location: _____

ISTA Region# _____ (See <http://www.ista-il.org/community/about-ista/regional-directors>)

Event Leader/contact information

Name: _____ Day phone _____

Mailing Address _____ Email _____

City, State, Zip _____

Program Description

(exactly how you want it to appear in the ISTA calendar information page; 75 word limit 5-6 lines)

Host/Event URL: _____ (for more detailed information, maps, registration forms, materials to bring, materials provided; maximum # for audience etc.)

Date of Event _____ (each event should be submitted separately, even if identical)

Time: from _____ to _____ (to be repeated on _____ ??)

Cost to ISTA members _____

(Please consider special accommodations for those who present ISTA membership cards)

Check the intended audience for teachers of :

preK-3; 4-6; 7-8; 9-12; K-12; Pre-service; College/University;

Administration can participate; Community members can attend; Students can be invited

Subject: biology; chemistry; earth science; environmental; general/integrated;

physics; technology; other (specify)

(Contact ISTA YoSc Chairperson: Gwen Pollock, 217/629-7791; gpollock@casscomm.com or the ISTA regional director in your area—see <http://www.ista-il.org/community/about-ista/regional-directors>)